

A detail file for all the use cases found in the diagram:

	Use case	Actor	detail
1	SignUp	Client	When a customer wants to enter the site and has not registered before, he will register
2	Login	Client	When a customer wants to enter the website and he registered before, he does not need to register again
3	Viewing all products	Client	After entering the site you can view a page containing all the products sold in the business
4	Add product to cart	Client	If the customer is interested in a certain product, he can add it to his shopping cart
5	Viewing all courses	Client	After entering the site, you can view the page containing all the courses taught by the business owner
6	registered to the course	Client	If the customer is interested in a certain course, he can register for this course.
7	Making an order	Client	An order includes all products that the customer has added to the basket
8	pay	Client	Transfer to a secure payment page for the order the customer made.
9	View profile	Client
10	Edit username , password ,address	Client	The client can edit his personal information such like username , password and address
11	Viewing all orders	Client	The client can view all the orders that he make before
12	Log in into admin system	Manager	Admin login into her system
13	Viewing all orders	Manager	The manager can see all the orders placed on the website
14	Accept/cancele order	Manager	The manager can cancel an order and can accept it.
15	Viewing all products	Manager	The manager can see all the products on the site
16	Add, update, delete products	Manager	The manager can make edit actions on the products, can add ,update something or delete a product
17	Viewing all courses	Manager	The manager can see all the courses on the site
18	Add, update, delete courses	Manager	The manager can make edit actions on the courses, can add ,update something or delete a course